

These are to certifie you that the Beater hereof, by name Angelus Iacobi, a Merchant of Cyprus, sayling out of Egypt into Creet, fell most vnfourtunatly into the hands of Turkish Pirates, who not only robbed and spoyled him of his Goods and Merchandises, but also tooke from him his Wife and Children, and as yet keepe them in Slauerie and bondage, not to be redeemed till the said Angelus Iacobi pay their severall Ransomes. Wherefore, We out of our Princeley compassion, taking pittie of the miserable estate and condition of this poore Christian, as also being moued thereunto by the example of other Princes, who by their Letters witnesed vnto vs the truth heseof, which cause we deffered vnto the Right Reuerend Father in God, George, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Metropolitan of all England, who did approue of the same, hauing granted and permitted him by Our Letters Patents, to aske, collect, and gather the charitable Almes and Benevolence of Our well disposed Subiects, during the time of his continuance in these Our Realmes. And for that hee now desireth to retorne into Cyprus, his owne Countrey, Wee haue granted him these Our Letters for his safe conduct in his Iourney both by Sea and Land, as shall be most conuenient, as also that you by whom he shall passe, might the rather bee moned to relieue him by your Christian Charitie: So shall you lay vp your Treasure in heauen, and binde this poore man to pray for your safetie continually. Giuen at Our Palace at Westminister, the thirteenth day of September.

God save the King.

Hauing perused of late his Majesties Letters Patents, on the behalfe of this Beater, Angelus Iacobi: These are to desire, aswell the Prebendaries, Residencies at Yorke, vpon some Sunday in the Metropoliticall Church there: Also to require all Parsons, Vicars, Curates and Church-wardens throughout my Diocese of Yorke, to be ayding and assisting vnto him, in receiuing the free and Charitable benevolence of all well affected Subiects, in their severall Churches and Chappels, according to the tenor of the said Letters Patents, signified in that behalfe. At Bishopthorpe the eleventh of Aprill 1625.
